

African Christian Biography

CONTENTS

Introduction: Why African Christian Biography?

Dana L. Robert

PART 1: The Importance of African Christian Biography and the Role of the DACB

- | | | |
|---|---|----|
| 1 | Modern African Church History and the Streetlight Effect: Biography as a Lost Key
Jonathan J. Bonk | XX |
| 2 | Pointillist History and the Essential Role of Biography in the Dictionary of African Christian Biography
Michèle Miller Sigg | XX |
| 3 | Stories My Grannies Never Told Me: Memory and Orality in the Narrative of African Christian History
Stan Chu Ilo | XX |
| 4 | Both African and Christian: Authenticity and Identity in African Christian Biography
Emmanuel A. S. Egbunu | XX |

PART 2: Biographies of Christian Leaders

- | | | |
|----|---|----|
| 5 | The Life and Visions of Krəstos Šámra, a Fifteenth-Century Ethiopian Female Saint
Wendy Laura Belcher (translations with Michael Kleiner) | XX |
| 6 | King Afonso I of Kongo: The Making of an African Christian King and His Kingdom
John K. Thornton | XX |
| 7 | Queen Njinga and Her Faiths: Religion and Politics in Seventeenth-Century Angola
Linda M. Heywood | XX |
| 8 | A Chief Who Loved God: Kgosi Sechele and the History of Christianity in Southern Africa
Stephen Volz | XX |
| 9 | Mizeki, Chilembwe, Harris, and the Future of African Christianity in Its Past
Mark A. Noll | XX |
| 10 | Preaching as Boxing? The Sermons of Seth Mokitimi, the “Brown Bomber,” as a Biographical Resource
Deborah Gaitskell | XX |

PART 3: Retrieving Women’s Lives

- | | | |
|----|---|----|
| 11 | Recovering the Lives of African Women Leaders in South Africa: The Case of Nokutela Dube
Heather Hughes | XX |
| 12 | “A Character Worth Writing About”: Sikhawulaphi Khumalo’s Education and Christian Experiences at Empandeni Mission, Southwestern Zimbabwe, 1900–1940s
Barbara Mahamba | XX |
| 13 | “Why Can’t We Ordain Nellie?”: Leadership, Faith, and Hagiography in the Life of Nellie Maduma Mlotshwa, Zimbabwe
Wendy Urban-Mead | XX |

PART 4: Challenges in Writing African Christian Biography

- | | | |
|----|--|----|
| 14 | Unknown Pioneers and Unsung Heroes: Forgotten Christian Ancestors of the Gold Coast (Ghana)
Maureen O. Iheanacho | XX |
| 15 | Biography as Counter-Narrative to Rupture: The Moral Problem of Intact Lives
Paul Glen Grant | XX |
| 16 | Jan Tzatzoe or Dyani Tshatshu: Personal, Political, and Historical Consequences of Naming in African History
Roger S. Levine | XX |
| 17 | Omission and Elision: Missing the Target in Biographies of the Reverend Tiyo Soga
Joanne Davis | XX |

Bibliography XX

Contributors XX

Index XX